WESTWARD HO, the wagon is in for greasing, as Mrs. Vivian Larsen, of Moncton, New Brunswick, and her daughter, Sandy, 15, near the end of their 4,200 mile journey in a covered wagon pulled by 3,500 pound "Bob," a big part percheon, part Arabian horse. Neither Mrs. Larsen or Sandy had ever harnessed or driven a horse before starting their trip. William Montez, kneeling left, and Zeke Hernandez, donated grease job on the little wagon and its tandem trailer at their service station in Indio. (Desert Sun Photo)

Coroner's Jury Clears Playhor In Slaying Case

A coroner's jury yesterday cleared Bruce Playhor of criminal responsibility in the Halloween slaying of an alleged burglar — but Palm Springs police detectives said they're not closing the books on the case yet.

Playhor told the jury how he waited — for two nights — in his darkened residence at 660 Beverly Drive for a prowler to reappear.

WHEN THE PERSON put in an appearance shortly before 10 p. m. on Halloween night, Playhor testified, he shot the unknown prowler at a range of one foot with a .35 caliber pistol. The prowler, who turned out to be Charles Allen Robinson, 24, of 500 B Street, Cathedral City, died of the wound.

"I was scared to death," Playhor said to the jurors.

DET. SGT. JOHN Herrera said that although he was not arguing with the jury's decision, he wanted to "continue the investigation until all aspects of this case are reviewed."

Herrera was obviously referring to Playhor's admission that he knew the dead man's companion on the fatal night — Harold Daniel Thompson, 23, of 97 Circle Drive, Palm Springs — "very well."

Thompson has been jailed on a charge of attempted burglary and faces preliminary hearing on the charge on Nov. 10.

Scott Defeats Babin in AVCC Election Friday

DESERT HOT SPRINGS—Frank Scott, a retired industrialist living in La Quinta, has been elected as a new member of the board of directors of the Angel View Crippled Children's Foundation here.

In an election meeting last night, Scott was placed in nomination from the floor by Hans Kleinjung of Desert Hot Springs, and he defeated local resident Clifford Babin for the post.

Also nominated from the floor, but losers in the election for the four open posts, were Dr. Kenneth Phillips of Indio, and Walter Klocke of DHS.

Elected to three year terms last night were: Scott, Mrs. Rose G. Bertram of DHS, Aaron L. Eaton of DHS, and Mrs. Richard Bagdasarian of Palm Springs.

Others serving on the 11-man board were Sam Benson, president; John Seaman and A. B. Scott of Palm Springs; Layton Nugent, John Mack, Maurice Bryan of DHS, and Charles Elliot of La Quinta.

SUN TO REMAIN BIGGEST BARGAIN IN THE DESERT

The Desert Sun will continue to be the biggest bargain in the Desert.

This was the answer today of Circulation Manager Orval Risvold to queries as to whether The Desert Sun was planning an increase of its subscription price, similar to those announced by Los Angeles and Riverside daily newspapers.

"We are staying with our present rate of $1.50 a month," Risvold said, "and will continue to offer the same complete daily coverage of the Desert area — News and Advertising — for which we have become known."

WOMAN, 'SECRET' NEAR END OF TRIP

INDIO—A modern covered wagon voyager stopped in this desert community Friday to pick up an American visa from the postoffice, and prepare for the last 120-mile leg of a 4,200-mile one-horsepower trip from Moncton, New Brunswick, Canada, to Hollywood.

Mrs. Vivian Larsen, a quiet, smiling widow, and her 15-year-old daughter, Sandy, have been on their mission since July, 1959. Pulled by big, docile "Bob," a 13-year-old part percheon, part Arabian horse, the mother-daughter team have made the long overland trek for a mission, and because Mrs. Larsen likes to travel.

"SANDY HAS finished" grade school, and as soon as we reach Hollywood, she must return to school," Mrs. Larsen said. If this isn't possible, Sandy will have to retrace her steps 4,200 miles for school in Canada.

Here, the women picked up a visa forwarded from the Canadian consulate in Los Angeles. They have been traveling on visitors' permits.

"I'VE GOT A secret," Mrs. Larsen smiled. She explained that she will take her secret to Hollywood producer Walt Disney. If Disney can't make use of the secret, Mrs. Larsen will write a book.

"We've already had two offers to underwrite the book, and lots of people have asked for the story of our journey," she said.

IN INDIO, THE Larsen wagon, complete with rear-view mirror, was greased. The wagon was sleeping quarters on the open desert for six nights. In the wagon is grain, three bales of hay for "Bob," food for "Abbey," the dog given to them in northeast Texas, 55 gallons of water, clothes, and food for 35 miles, or approximately two and a half days of travel.

"We usually get on the road at sundown, after arising at 3:30 a.m. By 10 a.m. or noon, we are off the road for the day," Mrs. Larsen said. This schedule is easiest on "Bob," she explained. "Bob" is due for a new set of horseshoes, if Mrs. Larsen can find a blacksmith in Palm Springs.

THE LARSENS have a big ledger with the names of all people who aided on their trip. Included in the kindness extended them was gifts of hay. Women brought hay to tide them over the desert.

DESERT HOT SPRINGS INCIDENT

Three Brothers Held On Kidnaping Charges

RIVERSIDE — Three brothers were in custody here Friday awaiting a hearing on charges of alleged kidnaping, conspiracy, assault with a deadly weapon, and attempting to force two people to sign legal papers against their will in Desert Hot Springs Tuesday.

For one brother, an added charge of grand theft in Riverside was added.

Apprehended here were David McGowan, Darrell McGowan, and Philip McGowan. The trio allegedly attempted to force Lavern Elliott and Mrs. Bernadine Schoning to sign away a liquor license, personal property, and interest in the B-Bar-H Ranch in Desert Hot Springs.

FBI Arrests Rancho Mirage Man Friday

Federal Bureau of Investigation agents last night arrested Robert S. Daneman, 40, of Rancho Mirage, on a charge of interstate transportation of jewelry obtained by fraudulent and false representation.

The arrest was made last night by FBI agents who went to Daneman's home at 71-747 San Geronimo Road. Daneman said he has been living in Rancho Mirage for about 10 days "for his health."

He had been sought by the FBI since Sept. 19, 1960, on a warrant issued by the U. S. Commissioner at Phoenix charging him with the illegal transportation of $5,000 (actual value set at $20,000) worth of jewelry across the state line from Phoenix, Ariz., to Reno, Nev.

Daneman told FBI agents that he was a resident of Dallas, Tex., and that his business was that of an oil lease salesman and speculator.

He had made reservations at several exclusive clubs for this weekend, where agents believed that he may have been preparing to sell his oil stocks.

Translator To Add ABC TV Channel

Full-Time Coverage Scheduled Under Approval by FCC

Subscribers to Palm Springs Translator Television will receive all three major networks within 30 days with the addition of the American Broadcasting Company's XETV outlet for the San Diego area, it was announced here today.

The new channel will operate full time, bringing both ABC network shows and local XETV programs to the Village.

AT THE SAME time, Palm Springs Translator announced that it has today completed the installation of additional equipment in its reception apparatus and that local residents may expect greatly improved reception of the CBS (Channel 3) and NBC (Channel 4) television programs from Los Angeles.

Translator also explained that some interruption of service in the past 10-day period was attributable to the installation of the new reception equipment.

XETV'S GENERAL manager, Vice President Julian M. Kaufman, was in Palm Springs in March of this year at which time he inspected the Translator operation and approved the application to the Federal Communications Commission for the addition of the ABC affiliate.

The application was made in May to the FCC.

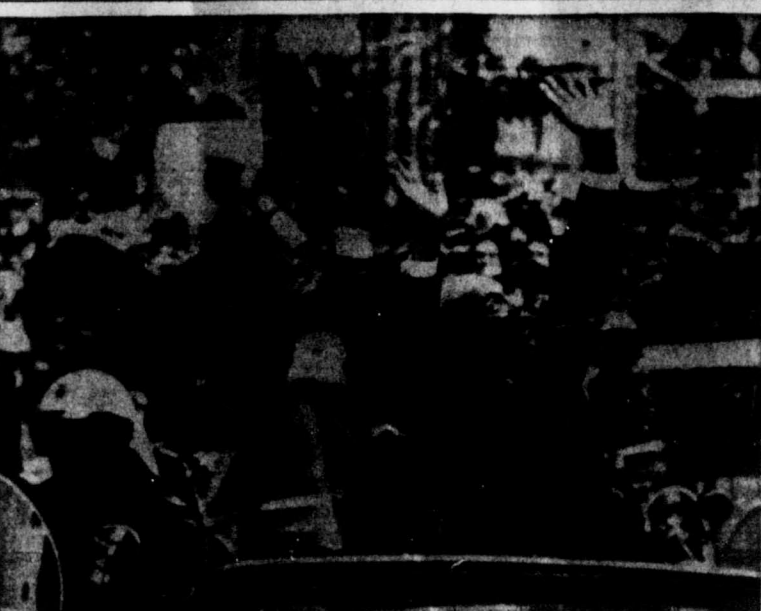

THE APPROVAL of the application by the FCC this week will launch the Hoffman Television Corporation in installation of reception gear to capture the signals of XETV for transmission to Palm Springs viewers.

McFadden told the group that architectural planning for the proposed Palm Springs facility for day and 24 hour care for mentally retarded children is under way. The

Nine Desert Area Matters Before Board

Nine desert area matters, two of which concern complaints on conditions at Thermal Airport, will be up for action by the Riverside County Board of Supervisors Monday.

Actually Ed Carter, now a Desert Hot Springs property owner — and also collected $50 from Chamber members for decoration of a 30-foot Christmas tree for the community. Extra costs in erecting the tree are being borne by the Rotary Club, Cliff Babin Realty Company and the Desert Hot Springs Improvement Association.

The board is expected to adopt a resolution appointing directors for the Desert Hot Springs Recreation and Park District, and will receive a recommendation of the Airport Commission to accept offer of F. A. A. funds for enlargement of the runway at Ryan Airport.

Supervisors will be asked to adopt an ordinance relating to zoning in the Indian Wells District, and will be asked to approve a map and related documents on Thunderbird Heights No. 9.

CAMERON, Tex. (UPI) — Johnny Horton, 35, the Western-style singer who made the song "Battle of New Orleans" popular, was killed today in a grinding head-on collision on a railroad overpass.

Three persons, two of them passengers in the car Horton was driving, were injured.

JUDGE HOPES CASE TO END 'BY CHRISTMAS'

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Uninterrupted deliberation of the Finch-Tregoff murder retrial — without even a lunch break — was ordered today by the presiding judge who said he hoped to end the case "by Christmas."

"I hope to get this case over by Christmas, I've already given up on Thanksgiving," Superior Judge Leroy Dawson said today. He asked bailiffs to bring sandwiches and coffee to the jury room "so they won't have to break for lunch."

DHS COFC STARTS CHRISTMAS PLANS

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Christmas may be far away to most of us, but it's right around the corner for the Desert Hot Springs Chamber of Commerce.

The Chamber has voted its approval of a Dec. 17 Christmas Show featuring Bozo the Clown — actually Ed Carter, now a Desert Hot Springs property owner — and also collected $50 from Chamber members for decoration of a 30-foot Christmas tree for the community. Extra costs in erecting the tree are being borne by the Rotary Club, Cliff Babin Realty Company and the Desert Hot Springs Improvement Association.

OF KEYSTONE KOPS FAME

Mack Sennett Succumbs At Motion Picture Hospital

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Mack Sennett, movie pioneer who gave the world the Keystone Kops and the first film bathing beauties, died today at the Motion Picture Country Hospital in Woodland Hills.

He was 80.

Once the biggest producer in the young motion picture industry, Sennett lived the past 10 years of his life in near poverty in a small apartment overlooking Hollywood Boulevard, the glamorous thoroughfare he helped make famous.

DEATH STILLED the comedian at 2:45 a.m. at the Motion Picture Country Home in nearby Woodland Hills where he had lived recently. The cause of death was not given.

Master of the custard pie school of comedy, Sennett was the discoverer of such stars as W. C. Fields, Bing Crosby, Charlie Chaplin, Fatty Arbuckle, Marie Dressler and Wallace Beery.

HE SPECIALIZED in the two-reel slapstick silents that paved the way for Cecil B. DeMille, Sam Goldwyn and Jesse Lasky, who became giants of drama.

Born in Denville, Que., April 30, 1880, his real name was Mickall Sinnott.

Greets China's President

MOSCOW (UPI) — Premier Nikita Khrushchev returned today from a Black Sea vacation retreat and was on hand to greet Red China's President Liu Shaochi, here to attend a "summit" meeting of Communist powers.

Also on hand to greet the highest ranking Red Chinese dignitary to visit Moscow since Mao Tse-tung in 1957 was Soviet President Leonid Brezhnev.

LIU ALSO WILL participate in the celebrations of the 43rd anniversary of the Russian revolution.

False rumors originating in Vienna Friday had reported that Khrushchev had been ousted from office in a bloodless coup that returned former Premier Georgi Malenkov to power.

The streets here were festooned with decorations featuring Khrushchev's picture in preparation for the anniversary observance which begins with a mass meeting Sunday.

"THE 'SUMMIT' meeting may heal the breach between the Soviet Union and Red China, arising from the differences in their views about the inevitability of war with the West.

All indications in Moscow were that the Red presidents and party secretaries would adopt a unanimous resolution confirming Khrushchev's Russia as the leader of the Communist world and endorsing his line of "peaceful co-existence."

"LIU SAID, 'I am full of joy to arrive on the invitation of the Soviet Union to celebrate the happy 43rd anniversary of the great Russian Revolution. The U. S. S. R. has achieved brilliant success in its economic plan in the great fight for peace and in the fight to liberate the oppressed nations.'

"The successes of the Soviet Union and China inspire confidence in the future of both of us."

Kennedy Given Great Welcome

CHICAGO (UPI) — Hundreds of thousands of persons carrying torchlights and campaign signs but two toting guns, gave John F. Kennedy a rousing, Chicago-style welcome Friday night.

Capt. James McMahon, chief of detectives, estimated the throngs at 1,500,000 but newsmen accompanying the Kennedy party said this figure was quite high.

But the pictures caught on with the public, and by 1914 Sennett headed one of the most profitable movie companies in the world.

"The only thing that worried me was I couldn't get pictures of my comedians in the newspapers," Sennett once said. "I noticed, though, that any picture showing part of a girl's leg, or even her ankle, usually got printed."

"SO I DECIDED to put my girls in bathing suits and have my comedians stand close while the pictures were being taken. That's how bathing beauties got started. It was just a publicity stunt."

Sennett also invented mob scenes. He couldn't afford hundreds of extras, so he waited until a Shriners' convention hit town.

"Then I ran my actors into the midst of them," he explained. But it was the Keystone Kops for which he was best known.

House Probe Readied for Donald Nixon

Influence Charge
Will Be Subject
For Committee

WASHINGTON (UPI) — House investigators plan to look into charges that the Civil Aeronautics Board CAB was influenced by a $205,000 loan industrialist Howard Hughes made to Vice President Richard M. Nixon's brother, Donald.

Chairman Jack B. Brooks, D-Tex., of the House government activities subcommittee said "serious allegations" had come to the panel's attention. He announced plans for the inquiry Thursday.

BROOKS SAID IT HAD been reported that Trans World Airlines, owned by the Hughes Tool Co., was granted favorable CAB decisions following the 1956 loan. He said indications were that the GOP presidential nominee was consulted on every step of the loan.

Subcommittee aide Edward C. Brooks, brother of the chairman, said work had already started on the inquiry. But he said it would be "practically impossible" to get the committee together for a hearing until after the elections next Tuesday.

THE ORIGINAL REPORT of the loan was made by syndicated columnist Drew Pearson. Pearson said important matters of the Hughes companies which were before the federal government got better treatment after the loan.

The vice president's campaign manager, Robert N. Finch, said Pearson's story "alleges that a loan was made to Don Nixon and that in some way the vice president was implicated and that Hughes benefitted. That is absolute nonsense."

IN A STATEMENT released in Los Angeles on Oct. 30, Donald Nixon confirmed the loan but said "I have never asked my brother to do anything for me or anyone else in the government. And if I did ask, I know he would refuse."

SECURITIES FIRM TO LOCATE HERE

Hornblower and Weeks, a leading firm in the investment securities business, established in 1888, will establish a branch in Palm Springs on Dec. 1. It was announced today.

The firm made its first move to the Pacific Coast last July 1 through consolidation of its business with that of Revel Miller & Co., Inc., of Los Angeles. The Palm Springs office at 126 North Palm Canyon Drive will be the first extension of its operations in Southern California.

The office will provide complete, modern brokerage facilities through its coast-to-coast extensive private wire system, officials said. It will be staffed by two Villagers who are veteran securities men, T. H. Lowry, a long time resident here and former vice president of Revel Miller & Co., Inc., with a background of 25 years in the securities field, and William M. Cooper, resident manager of the Palm Springs Branch and for a period of more than 30 years affiliated with the Chicago office of Hornblower & Weeks.

PRESIDENTIAL SERIES:

Nixon Either Loved or Hated

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following is the first of two articles dealing with the Republican and Democratic candidates for the presidency. The second article—on Democratic candidate John Kennedy—will appear in The Desert Sun on Monday.

By United Press International
During his 13 years of public service, Richard Milhous Nixon has been the subject of five full-length biographies, hundreds of newspapers and magazine pieces, and millions of heated private conversations.

All have sought to analyze his complex personality, to pinpoint the kind of man he "really" is.

THE DESCRIPTIONS vary so widely it is sometimes hard to realize they are all being applied to the same human being.

Nixon has been depicted as shy and introverted... and as a born ham actor. He has been labeled "cold, impersonal, calculating, opportunistic." He has also been found "warm, friendly, practical, dedicated."

One famous Washington correspondent Richard L. Strout of the Christian Science Monitor sees him as "one of the most brilliant and intellectually gifted figures that American politics has produced in half a century."

ANOTHER (COLUMNIST Walter Lippmann) regards him as a ruthless partisan who "does not have within his conscience those scruples which the country has the right to expect in the President of the United States."

Nixon has been winning ardent friends — and equally ardent enemies — ever since 1946, when he answered a newspaper advertisement seeking a Republican candidate for Congress in his home district of Southern California. Nixon was a 33-year-old lawyer, who had just gotten out of the Navy after World War II service in the Pacific. His Democratic opponent was veteran Congressman Jerry Voorhis.

NIXON DEFEATED Voorhis in a slugging campaign, and went on to Washington where he won national attention during his freshman term in the House, by playing a leading investigative role in the Hiss-Chambers case.

In 1950, he ran against Rep. Helen Gahagan Douglas for the Senate. His political tactics in that campaign have been the subject of controversy ever since; Admirers described him as vigorous; critics called them vicious. At any rate, they were successful, and Nixon moved up to the Senate at the age of 37.

TWO YEARS LATER, he was tapped to be Dwight D. Eisenhower's running mate. A campaign furor arose over an $18,235 "expense fund" which had been raised for him by some wealthy California supporters, and for several days Nixon's budding political career seemed to hang in the balance, with Eisenhower and other GOP leaders debating whether to drop him from the ticket. Nixon decided the question for them, with a nationwide broadcast in which he gave a detailed account of his personal finances. Some critics still haven't forgiven Nixon for what they call the "soap opera" flavor of that broadcast, but others thought it was tremendous, and Nixon stayed on the ticket.

The vice presidency once was considered the graveyard of political ambitions, but with Eisenhower's blessing, Nixon raised it to a new level of importance.

THROUGHOUT THE eight-year Eisenhower administration, Nixon has functioned as a "working partner" of the chief executive, sitting in on meetings of the cabinet and National Security Council, traveling almost 160,000 miles abroad as the President's representative on good will visits to 54 countries, and generally playing a larger part in administration policy councils than any vice president has ever done before.

His role as "understudy" to the President was dramatized on three occasions when Eisenhower illnesses pushed him close to the point of becoming "acting President."

It's 'Nature Boy' Week in Village

This week is being observed as a "Nature Boy" life is considered a relative term, and covers enjoying as fully as possible the qualities for natural living so available here: "the fresh air of the desert, warm sunshine, fresh uncontaminated natural foods, and the friendly atmosphere coming so naturally to this congenial atmosphere."

A search for the typical "Nature Boy" of the area will be culminated by a pot luck dinner at the Palm Springs Woman's Club at 4:30 p.m., Sunday. The public is invited to participate.

Arkansas had four governors in less than five months in 1913—Joseph T. Robinson, W. K. Oldham, J. M. Fretwell and George W. Hays.

Dr. Bronner, of Escondido, nephew of the late Albert Einstein and well known research chemist in his own right, will be guest speaker at the Natural Foods Pot Luck dinner at 4:30 p.m., Sunday, at the Palm Springs Women's Club.
He will speak on the subject of "Pure water, and its relationship to your health."
The public is invited to this "Bring a Dish" dinner. For those wishing to come after the dinner, Dr. Bronner will speak at 6 o'clock.

AFTER SUN-SET

Hot Time Due for RM Hotel

By GEORGE LAINE

There'll be a hot time in the old town on Nov. 19.

The "old town" in this case happens to be Rancho Mirage and the "hot time" will center about the formal dedication ceremonies for Whispering Waters Hotel as it squares away for the 1960-61 season.

THE FIVE HOLLYWOOD stars — Hugh O'Brian, Lloyd Bridges, Carolyn Jones, Pat Conway and Dennis Weaver — who co-own (along with some other metropolitan figures) the plush hotel aren't sparing much expense on this opening hoop-de-doo. (They also aren't sparing much in the way of price since the opening line I heard on the affair was that it was going to cost $30 per and on an invitational basis at that.)

For the privilege of being separated from that much money, the invitees will get to see a highly-polished, razzle-dazzle show, the likes of which they may never see again.

ALL OF THE OWNERS figure to participate heavily in the show and it is now a matter of uncommon knowledge that Betty Garrett is in rehearsal for it and so is Larry Parks. (Names like Nick Adams and Dick Powell and June Allyson and Lloyd Nolan and Chuck Connors have also been named about plus a lot of others that my fragile memory has misplaced.)

In any event, this event looks like a gasser.

But I'll have to talk to Herb Samson and see if I can float a big enough loan to attend.

BILLY ALLEN'S BAND isn't going to get its Monday night off next week.

But don't sympathize with Billy and group. They'll get election night off instead and the Biltmore Hotel's TV sets will be functioning loud and clear bringing the Garden Room the blow-by-blow account of the vote.

Jimmy Shipp, Biltmore barkeep, is planning a "Loser's Special" for election night action at the East Palm Canyon Drive hotel. Equal parts of gin and cyanide... it kills you — but you don't mind so much.

SHERMAN'S STEAK House down on the south end is back in action — and once again the favored locale for the Village's working troops.

I've got to talk to Sherm about getting something going after 2 a.m. in there since it's probably the liveliest place you'll ever see.

(Maybe Dick Karp could come over from his Desert Auction and stage a benefit auction for Sherm. Like auction off the "coffee only" drinkers to the Desert Hoop gallery?)

NOTES OFF THE CUFF: Speaking of the election, didja hear that Elmo Roper, the pollster, refused to predict the outcome of the Tuesday mish-mash?

"At this date all I can say is I don't understand my own data," he quipped.

Funniest line of the election so far came from Ace Hudkins: "Is Cabot Lodge anything like Ocotillo Lodge?"

Pays to Be Exact DALLAS, Tex. (UPI) — Judge John Mead of Domestic Relations Court granted a divorce to a clock watcher in record time.

The man asked for the divorce on grounds of mental cruelty. "How long have you been married?" the judge asked.

"Twenty — two years, eight months, 14 days and 9 hours," the man answered.

"Divorce granted," the judge declared.

Time for Nixon-Lodge Team

There is a seasoned judgment, a maturity of approach, a broad background of experience which are compelling in our recommendation for a vote for Nixon-Lodge as the presidential team on Tuesday's ballot.

Richard Nixon has had eight years in the White House in a role more active and decisive than that afforded any vice-President in history. He has participated in the most profound cabinet discussions. He has been privy to the data, deliberations and decisions of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. He has matured and seasoned under the tutelage of eight years of President Eisenhower.

With Henry Cabot Lodge at his side in the critical matters of foreign policies, Nixon is admirably qualified to lead this country in the years ahead—perhaps better trained for the job than any prior president.

Kennedy undeniably has charm, sincerity—and expediency. When he calls this nation second rate he shows a lack of knowledge of the Soviet and a lack of awareness of our own strength and capabilities. "17 million Americans half starving and hopeless" is a direct quote which has returned to haunt him. So has "Give up Quemoy" and "Apologize to Khrushchev."

He proposes massive subsidies and lower consumer prices in the same breath—new, billion dollar projects and a balanced budget.

These are flip phrases, politically exciting and frighteningly immature.

As late as the primaries, before they climbed on the party bandwagon, Harry Truman, Mrs. FDR, Humphrey, Morse, and even Lyndon Johnson were describing Kennedy as "inexperienced, unreliable and immature."

But our next president must be able to cope with Khrushchev... and a huge public debt. He will be commander-in-chief of our military forces... and the most influential single man in the entire Free World.

With him, if the nation's choice is Nixon, will be a skilled, experienced team in the cabinet and in the chief administrative posts. This is no time to put in the freshmen.

Since this is not an aggressive nation, our foreign policies must be constructed within the necessity of containing Communism. This is, then, a battle of words, ideas, backed up by moral, financial and military strength.

This war cannot be won by the flip phrase, by labels on America as "second rate" or by predictions to our enemies of future retreats.

This, then, is the time for Nixon and Lodge.

Backstrand for Senate

Assemblyman Lee Backstrand has represented Riverside County well in the State Legislature. With the retirement of Senator Dilworth, Backstrand is a candidate for the vacated post. To it he will bring his very extensive legislative background, experience and seniority. Since these qualifications are hard to come by and represent a definite asset to the people, we recommend that you vote for Backstrand for Senator for Riverside County.

Assemblyman Backstrand is a recognized expert in Sacramento on highway and transport problems. He has carried the ball in successful moves to get through airline scheduled service to this area. His efforts on improvements of Highways 60-70 and their inclusion in the US interstate system were highly successful. To his long list of legislative accomplishments must also be added highway and street improvements in Palm Springs, inclusion of the Palms-to-Pines highway in the state freeway system and a whole host of other achievements for the benefit of his entire district.

It seems simple, selfish, good business to keep Backstrand working for us in Sacramento, this time in the Senate.

Ike in the Future--II

NEW YORK — One of Harry Truman's favorite cartoons, clipped from the Saturday Review, shows two school boys walking along the street and one is saying, "O. K., so you grow up to be President, and you even get re-elected, that's still only eight years. What do you do with the rest of your life?"

Across the bottom of the cartoon, Truman wrote: "God only knows!! — H.S.T."

DWIGHT DAVID Eisenhower must ask himself that same question today.

There are perhaps half a dozen U. S. Corporations willing to pay the retiring President considerably more money than the United States pays him. (The President makes $100,000 a year, plus a taxable expense account of $50,000, and a nontaxable sum not to exceed $40,000 for traveling and official entertainment expenses.) But it is most unlikely that he would accept any job in private industry.

HE HAS NOT divulged what he plans to do with his time, once his task is done. Best guesses are that he will write at least one more book (the proceeds from "Crusade in Europe" which have amounted to about $750,000 constitute the basis of his modest fortune). He has pigeon-holed record-breaking offers from a least two magazines for exclusive rights to his memoirs.

Though he is by far the most traveled President in our history, he maintains an insatiable desire to see even more of the world, and revisit places where the performance of his Presidential duties interfered with his enjoyment of previous appearances.

THOSE TRIPS, if they come, will be done at a much more leisurely pace than the jet-propelled odysseys of his final year in office. There will be more sea and rail travel for only those means will be able to persuade Mamie — who loathes flying — to go along with him.

The Eisenhowers have at least two homes to go to when they leave the White House — their farm at Gettysburg and the castle which a grateful British Government pressed upon Ike after World War II. To that in all probability will be added a house in the Palm Springs area and either a house or apartment in Washington. More golf more bridge and more time with his grandchildren and old cronies would appear to loom on his horizon. Also, he will give some of his time to the Eisenhower Library and Museum in his boyhood home of Abilene, Kans.

ONE DISTASTEFUL occupation of his later life which Dwight David Eisenhower is almost sure to discard, probably on the evening of Nov. 8, is politics. The history of the Presidency shows no man with as little appetite for the Great Game as Eisenhower.

It is as unthinkable to attempt to picture him as a "Give 'Em Hell" ex-President as it is to imagine Harry Truman staying home and offering neither fire nor brimstone to an election. It is almost as difficult to conceive of Eisenhower's appearing before the GOP Convention of 1964, at which time he will be 74, for even a mellow Herbert Hoover-type dissertation.

D.D.E. WON TWO terms in the White House with less effort, perhaps, than any man before him. In his campaigns he seldom if ever mentioned Adlai Stevenson, rarely denounced, kept his pitch above the battle—and yet won by astonishing margins.

Though there was much bitterness in the GOP after his narrow defeat of Sen. Taft at the 1952 Convention, Eisenhower beat Stevenson by an electoral margin of 442 to 89. In '56, after his heart attack and slight stroke, and with the waters of the Nixon-Sassen dispute still choppy, Eisenhower still overruled Stevenson 457 to 73. He won the Presidency twice without ever raising his voice.

BUT HE IS capable of all the emotional fervor which has gone into the selection of his successors. Few men have seen the President get mad, but those who have witnessed that side of him say that it is a sight and sound to behold, that it would frighten a Nixon and a Kennedy right out of the ballpark.

He got mad at a minister once for announcing that he, then President-elect, had finally been baptized and would henceforth be a regular churchgoer.

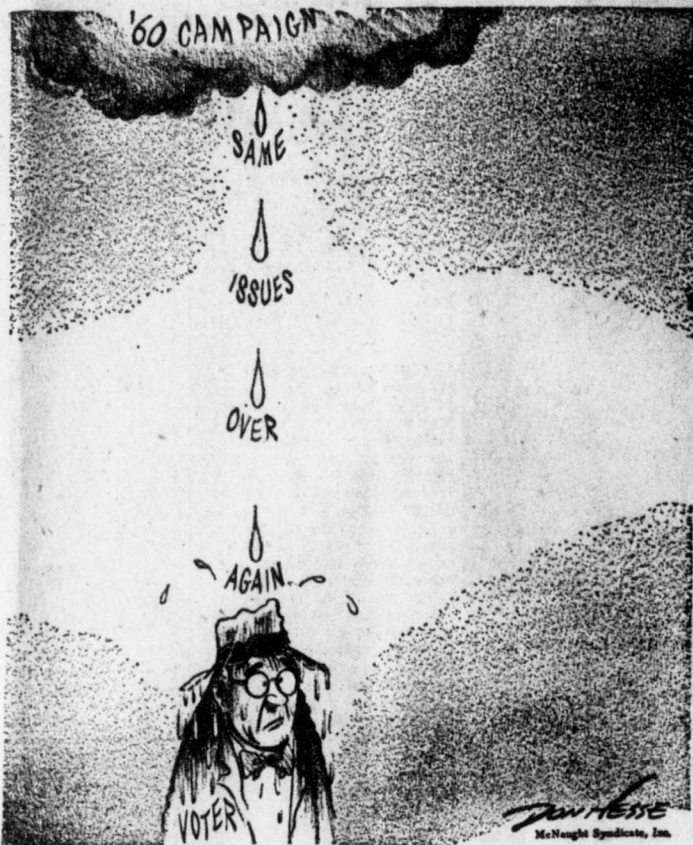

"You tell that (censored) preacher that if he ever opens his mouth about me again I'll never go to his (censored) church again!" Ike thundered at Jim Hagerty.

HIS "EATING OUT" of a member of his SHAFEP Staff who was critical of his British counterpart still reverberates in the minds of those who were present. His private condemnations of Khrushchev, since the U-2 incident, have been marvels of volcanic vigor, intimates report.

Bob Considine

Drip -- Drip -- Drip

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

A harbinger of Christmas I saw the first today, And at that said it's not too soon, To start that lay-away.

Here it is only November 5 but there was this big advertisement, full up with enticing Christmas gift suggestions. Telling you how you could have them all paid for in plenty of time for the big day. Paid for. Apparently they don't trust you.

THAT STARTED me checking. I carefully counted the days in the calendar on the back of the World Almanac and, leaving out Thanksgiving Day and Sundays, found that there are just 40 shopping days left until Christmas.

That 40 takes in Saturday, December 24, when a lot of people will be scurrying around trying to do their Christmas shopping early.

I WONDER which will be the first Southern California city to decorate its lamp posts with wreaths and gay colors and string tinsel across the streets.

Last year I think it was Anaheim where I first saw the Yule decorations along about Nov. 15. They had a Santa Claus on every lamp post. Along came one of our fall "northers" and Saint Nick was gone.

YOU NOTE, I called it a "norther." Most people call them "Santa Anas" which makes the people of that Orange County metropolis mad.

And you can't blame them. Supposing we had a big wind and people said: "Oh, we're in for a Palm Springs."

FROM SAN FRANCISCO Wednesday came an enlightening UPI dispatch. A noted educator was quoted as saying that 50 per cent of the people believe whiskey will kill a fever.

In fact, some people think whiskey will cure anything. Like the wife who said to her husband as he started to sneeze and snuffle and ran for the jug: "You think whiskey will cure anything but a broken leg."

TWO DAYS later a Los Angeles couple arrived for a visit at their Palm Springs home. The woman was on crutches. Seems she had tripped over one of those 50-foot telephone cords and broken her leg.

Well, the four of them reviewed old times on the coast with a few well chosen drinks.

As they left, the husband had to run out after the departing couple.

"Hey, Hester, you forgot your crutch."

And came back in, triumphant.

"See, honey, whiskey will even cure a broken leg."

THIS SAME EDUCATOR said, that aside from the whiskey theory, other misconceptions most people have is: fish is a brain food; water contains calories and is therefore fattening; steak can cure black eyes; infectious disease can be inherited. But it's going to be hard to make some people abandon the whiskey cure-all theory.

DICK WEST:

Another Illusion Dead

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Another one of my cherished illusions has just been shattered and now lies in a quivering, whimpering heap at my feet.

This one was shot down by the Smithsonian Institution, which cold-shouldered reports that three rings are not necessarily reliable indicators of a tree's age. Gad, sir! Is there nothing left we can depend on?

ACCORDING TO the Smithsonian, a new arboreal study shows that trees tend to grow by "flushes," that is, in spurts. A tree may suddenly start growing almost any time of the year and one part may grow while an other part does not.

If that reminds any of you parents of someone you know, it possibly is because trees seem to have something in common with adolescent children.

AT ANY RATE, the report comes as a shock to those of us who grew to manhood thinking that all trees uniformly develop one new ring each year. It is moreover, only one of a series of reports I have seen recently indicating that an agonizing reappraisal of mother nature may be in order.

The Agriculture Department, for instance, tell us that that age-old belief in the existence of "dry rot" is just a lot of rot. There is no such thing as "dry rot."

ALL WOOD DECAY, the department avers, is caused by a fungus which cannot exist in dry wood.

There also is a question of whether we know whereof we speak when we refer to a "snail's pace." Have you any idea how fast a snail travels? Would you be surprised if I told you that snails can sprint at speeds up to four inches a minute?

Some snails, incidentally, have an interesting love life. When they want to get cozy with another snail, they bombard the object of their affection with little limestone darts, sort of like cupid arrows.

THIS WILL GIVE us something to cling to until some government agency comes along and tells us there is no such thing as cupid.

Speaking of romance, I recently learned that Agriculture Department scientists have discovered how to produce synthetically the natural perfume which the female gypsy moth uses to attract her lovers.

THE BREAKTHROUGH was made by a chemist named Martin Jacobson, who found that lady gypsy moths get their men with a substance he identified as "dextroretroxy 10 - acetoxy - 1 hydroxyl 7 hexadecene."

When a male gypsy moth gets a whiff of dextroretroxy 10 - acetoxy - hydroxy cis 7 - hexadecene, he never knows what hits him. And small wonder, no red blooded, 100 per cent male gypsy moth would be thinking of chemistry at a time like that.

JACOBSON HAS managed to duplicate this monthly aphrodisiac in a compound known as "gyplure." Pest control officials plan to use it to lure male gypsy moths to their destruction.

From a male's standpoint, there may not be a better way to die.

HOLLYWOOD — Van Johnson recalling the long series of movies in which he played the clean cut boy and June Allyson costarred as the girl next door: "By the time we'd completed our tenth movie we both wanted out. It got so we knew what we were going to do before we looked at the script."

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo — Albert Boela, commissioner for information in Col. Joseph Mobutu's provisional government, responding to U.N. We are free to engage technicians who we can understand even if they are Zulus."

Plaque for Bob

HOLLYWOOD — Bob Hope received a plaque from the board of directors of Cedars of Lebanon Hospital for his humanitarian efforts. Signed Bob, "I appreciate it very much. I really do, but will somebody please tell me why they always give me plaques for being a humanitarian or philanthropist and never one for being a comedian?"

My friend Ski-Nose, guesting on Here's Hollywood, tore a page from Danny Kaye's guest shot on What's My Line? Interviewer Dean Miller gave Bob the entire half-hour time, instead of splitting Here's Hollywood with other stars as is usually the case. But Hope turned it into a riot by refusing to give serious answers to Dean's straight interview questions.

DEBBIE REYNOLDS lost 10 pounds pre-taping her first TV special. She has gained it all back. I asked how. "With a special diet," said Debbie. "Nothing but FOOD!"

Peter Lawford, Sen. Jack Kennedy's brother-in-law, pre-taped an entire show with Gary Moore and made not one political pitch for Kennedy. Reason: The show won't beam until Dec. 12.

A publicity release from the producers of the Day in Court series sums up the plot of one of the shows: "A truck driver, without a truck, is charged with battery."

MAUREEN O'HARA, a flaming redhead, is dicker with David Susskind for the starring spots in two specials, The Scarlet Pimpernel and The Three Musketeers, both of them red-head roles, both in Glorious NBColor.

Donald O'Connor is shopping for the TV rights to an old movie, The Shop Around the Corner, also to be taped as a special.

Remember I mentioned Sid Caesar is scrounging around for a new series for himself? Latest report is it'll be on film for Screen Gems or Revenue Productions — and it'll be a comedy western. He's also up for a straight dramatic role, as the top villain in G. E. Theatre's Underground Goumment.

JACK PALANCE has a Hallmark Theatre stint on his crowded schedule: the title role in Barabba, a 90 minute play about the thief granted a stay of execution when Christ was chosen for crucifixion.

Did you dig Anna Maria Alberghetti's "new sound" on her Oct. 29th appearance on the Checkmate show? The Italian-born beauty has lost most of her Italian accent.

That'll be Sally Forrest, long in retirement as the wife of producer Milo Frank, too - to - toeing with Tony Randall in G. E. Theatre's Strictly Solo. It's about a ballet school, hence the tippy-toe bit.

LET'S FACE IT, says Red Skelton, the TV Academy's Emmy for the best male acting job of the year has got to go to that United Nations performance by Khrushchev!

Hollywood agent Frank Cooper hired a new secretary who CAN'T lose — her name is Nixanne Kennedy.

Joan Crawford's soft drink company is coaxing pianist Roger Williams to star in a series of bubbling musical specials. Move over, Lawrence Welk!

THE MCGUIRE Sisters are also cooking up a musical series, and high time for this talented trio. The trend (I know I've said it before but this time it looks a better — than — even bet for it to happen) seems to be away from Westerns, at least during the summer replacement season, and toward tune-shows.

They're still rumormongering that Riverboat will be dropped in mid-season this year. It isn't bothering the star of the show, Darren McGavin. His contract provides that he paid for the entire season, whether all 39 shows are shot or not.

George Gobel introducing a song - and - dance act at a benefit: "No pounding on the tables after they perform, please — this is NOT the United Nations!"

Remember When...

NOVEMBER 5, 1950

Jack Schulman, representing the Hotel and Apartment Owners Association, came to City Council meeting this week bearing gifts. Asking that something be done about the fly situation here, he presented the group with a half dozen new fly swatters. He said that Horace Heidt, owner of the Lone Palm Hotel and also owner of a fly fogging machine, has offered to loan the fly killer to the city for a week. The machine effectively rid San Fernando of flies, Schulman said. Council accepted the offer.

In regard to "Sun Time," Council delayed action until it could study the matter further as a committee of the whole.

NOVEMBER 5, 1940

Building permits soared to a new and dizzy height during October, setting a new record both as to number and volume. These highest marks since the city was incorporated are: 69 permits issued, total $93,332, according to Charles Burket, building inspector. The previous high was $91,725 for the month of September 1938.

After traveling about in the most scenic portions of the West for the past month and a half, George Van Saake, noted Dutch artist, was free in his praise of Palm Springs and the desert country as perhaps most beautiful of all.

NOVEMBER 5, 1930

B. F. Dickey, who lives on a claim north of Bonnie Belle lodge in Whitewater Canyon, unearthed some interesting Indian relics on a bluff which skirts the river. He will place them in the museum at Exposition Park, Los Angeles.

The Rev. Father John Rudden, formerly of Redlands, has been appointed pastor of the Catholic church of Palm Springs.

B'nai B'rith Anniversary To Be Feted

'Stag' Dinner
Monday Will Note
117th Anniversary

Palm Springs B'nai B'rith Lodge 2078 will stage a "stag" dinner party at 7 p.m., Monday in Laurie's Steak Ranch, celebrating the 117th anniversary of the founding of the benevolent fraternal organization in New York City.

Jack Auerbach, president of the Palm Springs B'nai B'rith told The Desert Sun that pictures for the "stag" dinner will include movies taken of the first B'nai B'rith convention held in Israel last year.

THE DINNER IS STAG simply because B'nai B'rith is a fraternal group, though our aims and work are not bound by sex, nationality, or religion," Auerbach said. The Palm Springs lodge, now 125 strong, has a women's branch with 165 members. The Palm Springs lodge was founded five years ago, with 50 charter members.

B'nai B'rith, founded in New York in 1843, began with 12 founders. The organization, active in 38 nations around the world, now has more than a half million members. B'nai B'rith, rooted in Jewish religious principles with a name meaning Sons of the Covenant, has a motto of "Benevolence, Brotherly Love, and Harmony." But the dedicated group supports with all its resources and manpower the principles it honors, and equipped an entire company of Jewish volunteers in response to President Lincoln's appeal for troops in the War Between the States.

DISASTER RELIEF, orphan care, hospitals and research foundations have been joined with community service and charities during the B'nai B'rith history. B'nai B'rith work starts at home — as the Palm Springs lodge has demonstrated in civic and charitable activities over the past five years — but response to physical need and enlightenment is world wide.

The Anti-Defamation League, which has fought for individual and minority rights of many peoples, was formed in 1913. Youth work, among Jewish boys, and for community good, has continued to be a major B'nai B'rith concern. The work for boys and girls was joined in the B'nai B'rith Youth Organization, which today has 1,300 chapters. For college age youth, the Hillel Foundation provides a focal point for social and cultural activities on 217 campuses of the nation. Vocational service has aided Jewish youth outside college programs. For adults, the Department of Adult Jewish Education has completed the group's service to its people of common ethnic background and religious history.

BUT B'NAI B'RITH — through work of both men and women — has maintained a broad view of human wants and needs around the world, without regard to ethnic or religious factors. Indeed, within the organization a wide scope of religious and political principles are encompassed with one common heritage.

Outside Judaism, such works as relief for Chilean earthquake victims, and support of a comprehensive system of hospitals and medical research centers indicate the B'nai B'rith character expressed in the group's statement: "The World stands on three foundations: on study, on service, and on benevolence."

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: You had a letter in your column from a young lady who sent her girl friend's picture instead of her own to a pen pal because she wasn't very pretty.

My problem is the same. Only just the opposite. I sent my picture to a fellow and we started to correspond. I soon realized that I wasn't as smart as he was, so I got my girl friend to write the letters for me. This fellow and I have been "corresponding" for over a year. We've become quite serious and now he wants to make a trip here to meet me. What should I do?

HAS GHOST WRITER

DEAR HAS: Write your own letter this time and 'fess up. If your ghost writer wants to meet the pen pal she cultivated for you, send him HER picture. If it's YOUR face he values over HER brains, give up the "ghost" and carry on.

DEAR ABBY: I am an "old-timer" who has started to work with young people on a volunteer basis. I was shocked to discover how many of our children can't read or spell. Some of my youngsters are in the eighth grade and their writing is so poor you can't read it. Their imaginations are over-developed and when it comes to reading, writing and arithmetic, they are lost. What's wrong with our educational system, I wonder?

OLD-TIMER

DEAR OLD: We're doing the best we can, but a teacher's pay is so low that only a few dedicated souls are interested in teaching careers. If I had my way, I'd double all teachers' salaries. Then we'd have plenty of first-rate men and women to educate our children.

DEAR ABBY: I would like your advice on a subject that has caused a heated discussion. When John A. Smith, Jr., the son of John A. Smith, Sr., has a child whom he names after himself, is the child known as John A. Smith III even after the grandfather is deceased? We were told that it is neither socially nor legally correct to use "III" when the original bearer of the name is dead; that the "Jr." becomes "Sr." and the grandchild (the "III") would become "Jr." Please advise.

JANE

DEAR JANE: The "Jr." becomes "Sr." upon the death of the

"Sr." — but the "III" remains the same.

DEAR ABBY: Here is a suggestion for "BIG BUT GRACEFUL" and all other large people who have trouble getting into an automobile. Just place your "dairy air" (this is a French word but spelled in English) on the seat first. Then pull your feet in after you. It works every time, especially for people who have back trouble.

"ALSO BIG"

CONFIDENTIAL TO "IGNORANT AND ASHAMED:" Your question is one that troubles many people... and it is nothing to be ashamed of. I cannot print the answer in my column, but will mail you a personal reply if you will send me a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Around Town

... with Hildy Crawford

The airplane view of Palm Springs... snuggling up against the mountains... with its swimming pools glittering like blue green zircons in the desert sunlight

... is spectacular... and particularly heart-warming to the returnee... who has been around looking... but found nothing as wonderful... It looks good too... as you drive along Palm Canyon Drive marveling at the beauty of the lighted palm trees... that makes this one of the world's most beautiful streets... From the ramada up back of Desert Inn... from Lily Pons' little jewelbox of a house up on Ca-huilla Hills... and from Little Tuscany's viewpoint... Palm Springs at night is breath-taking...

It's a treasure chest of brilliant gems... spilled out over the desert floor... just magnificent...

So far Palm Springs hasn't permitted any buildings high enough to provide a view of this beauty... with one exception... and it's more of a landmark than a building... El Mirador's Tower of the Stars... where the chimneys sound...

There it stands... almost the equivalent of four stories high... Most people glance up at it to note the time by its clock face... accepting it as ornamental architecture... It took Texas beauty Nancy Holmes to bring it back to life... with the party she gave for Tonia and Donald Campbell... who are heading back for London...

Guests trekked up the winding stairs... (I think there were 60... when I counted them... the only other time I made the trek)... lured upward and onward by the sound of music (Pat Barbara's) and the popping of champagne corks...

Inside the tower are great arches... surrounded by a railing - guarded walk... The archways framed pictures of the moon... luminous sky with fat white clouds... that looked like idealistic paintings of Paris... From the balcony walk... we looked in all directions at the pulsing beauty of Palm Springs at night... Here at the Top of the Mirador is beauty unimagined...

It was almost regrettably that we went back down the stairs... to the Starlite Patio... where dinner was served at flower-decorated tables... and couples danced on the terrazo floor... Overhead... the starred canopy was half open... to allow a view of the night sky... This was a party with real charm... highlighted by a song by Tony Romano... whose about-to-be released recording of Johnny Mathis' "While You're Young" appears destined to be America's top tune...

The Campbells' bon voyage gift was a painting by John Morris... that showed Donald and his famous racing car the Bluebird... upended out on the desert... with a tiny bluebird looking bewildered... The Mt. Kenya atmosphere on the desert may have been a contributing factor...

The Charlie Farrells were there and the Bill Powells... Clarence Browns, Ann Miller (her husband Bill Moss had been called to Texas by the illness of his mother)... Margaret Perriera, the Ray Corlisses... TV actress Eloise Hart, Edna Rothbart, Manuel Alvarez, William T. Lowe of New York, William Dugger Jr. of San Antonio, and red-jacketed Ray Ryan... Late in the evening... Frank Bogert arrived from Desert Riders... accompanied by Pepe Callahan and Julie... who received a warm reception...

There will be ribbon-cutting ceremonies at Thunderbird tonight... as members and guests gather for formal opening of the Club... in its luxuriously fabulous new decor... There will be a full house for this opening party... Thunderbird president Eric Stalton said today...

There will be an early cocktail party out at Eldorado tonight... welcoming the Club's new golf pro Walter Burkemo... It's early to allow Thunderbird members to get away in time for their own opening party...

Janice Doud whipped up a surprise birthday party for Phyllis Froggatt... entertaining the luncheon group at cocktails at her home... followed by luncheon at Thunderbird... A decorative birthday cake of paper was used as a centerpiece... and there were three birthday cakes... one for Phyllis... one for her mother Rose Livingston... and one for Emma Gale... The latter two were also celebrating birthdays... as was the hostess...

Other guests at the party were Ella Dyer, Dottie Buckingham, Sadye Hall, Blanche Hale, Mary Evans... Bonnie Ridder, Marguerite Clatworthy, Gertrude Sayre... and Caggle Carlson...

Hugh (Wyatt Earp) O'Brien phoned from Los Angeles airport to tell me... that he and publicist George Shaw had just completed a conference (at the airport... as Hugh was on his way to Chicago for a personal appearance... and George was bound for San Diego and Golden Door)... putting George in charge of Whispering Waters publicity this season...

Hugh and fellow television and motion picture stars... Lloyd Bridges, Dennis Weaver, Carolyn Jones and Pat Conway purchased the Rancho Mirage spot last season... and have big plans for this year... It's been agreed that one of the stars will host each weekend... acting as greeter at Whispering Waters... Opening plans are exciting... More about that later...

BRITISH SPEED KING Donald Campbell's four-and-a-half-million dollar racing car the Bluebird, reposes on its back in the sand, as a bewildered little bluebird studies the English racingman, under the palm trees. The signs point to El Mirador.

Around the World and Mt. Kenya, and those seem to be Mt. Kenya tribemen in the background. The painting, a bon voyage gift to the Campbells, is the work of John Morris. (El Mirador Photo by Conrad Hug.)

400 At Wedding Reception

Over 400 invited guests attended one of the largest weddings ever held in Palm Springs, when Linda Ortega, daughter of Peggy and Mercedes Ortega of 310 South Calle Santa Rosa, wed Raymond Welmas, son of William and Lorene McGlamaray of 511 Via Miraleste, this morning.

It was also one of the largest Indian ceremonies in the history of the Agua Caliente Band of Mission Indians, uniting scions of two leading families.

The wedding vows were exchanged at 10 a.m. at Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Church, with the Rev. Father Thomas J. Flahive officiating at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white sheath gown and veil. Attending her as maid of honor was Silvia Mendoza, and the flower girl was Denise Hernandez.

Raymond Welmas, member of Palm Springs' wealthiest Indian family, and holder of some of the most valuable land in the city, was attended by Norman Canales as best man.

The huge reception for 400 guests most of them friends and relatives, was held this afternoon at the Palm Springs Riviera Hotel, taking over the Mediterranean Room, from 1 to 4 p.m.

Three orchestras played at the reception, the Rene Touzet orchestra, joining with the Rivera's Bobby Ramos and his orchestra, and the trio of Harold Stern and the Nunez Brothers.

Expansive buffet tables were handsomely decorated and laden with a sumptuous array of foods, prepared by Chef Burandt. The five-tiered wedding cake with 22-inch base lowered above the table, its layers separated by silver trays on plastic columns. It was a creation by Riviera baker Ted Hackler.

The buffet offered four or five 50 pound roasts of steamship rounds, hot baked ham, chicken cacciatore and risotto, show pieces of turkey, ham and tongue, cold cuts, ten or twelve salads, jellomolds, watermelon boats and fruit punch.

A poolside cocktail party at the Emerson Apartment - Hotel honored some of the guests, who were here to attend the Zonta conference. The affair was hosted by the owners Howard and LeClair Planalp and Earl and Dr. Helen Schultz. Dr. Schultz is past president of the Laguna Beach Zonta Club.

Especially honored was Maria Correa from Santiago, Chile, past president of the Chilean Zonta Club.

Also attending were: Bea Whitely, recently selected "Woman of the Year" at Laguna Beach; Evaline Watson, past president of Laguna Beach Club; Alice Lighthart, current president at Laguna; and members Beth Woods, Helen McCord, Katryn Covault, all of Laguna Beach, and Wanda Trickey formerly of Laguna and now a Villager.

Home Owners Oppose Parking

In a letter to the City Council, signed by Ben F. Shearer, the Palm Springs Home Owners League has taken a stand against the construction of a parking facility in the residential district near the Howard Manor.

Explaining a deep concern over the contemplated parking area, Shearer wrote: "While we are aware that parking facilities are urgently needed for Palm Springs, we do not believe that spot zoning for parking purposes should prevail in exclusive residential areas."

Gauff Sparks Tribe to Win

Indians Still in DV Race

Lloyd (Ikey) Gauff broke loose last night, scoring four of five Palm Springs Indians touchdowns as the Tribe defeated Yucaipa's Thunderbirds Friday night on the local gridiron to retain a mathematical chance for the Desert Valley League crown.

The Indians won the game 31 to 19 in a thriller before a delighted throng.

PALM SPRINGS drew first blood when Gauff went over in the first period and Gus Walton booted the extra point for a 7-0 first quarter lead.

Gauff added six in the second period while Walt Simon of Yu-

The other night UCLA played

North Carolina State to an even smaller crowd. California has been playing to groups of 30,000 to 35, then it did playing California at Berkeley.

CITIES IN OREGON, Washington and Arizona often out-draw Los Angeles and San Francisco for amateur sports. University of Washington plays to capacity houses of 55,000 for its home games.

The cities in other Western states haven't had a taste of professional sports. And they don't have as many events to choose from.

Los Angeles now has two manor league baseball franchises, two major football franchises, professional basketball, etc. San Francisco has pro football, baseball, and is supposed to get two professional basketball franchises in 1961-62.

"It's going to take real, top-flight promotion to make a buck

in the sports entertainment business in the future," said one pro-motor. "There was a day when all we had to do was open the gates and the fans would pour through the turnstiles. Now they can be choosy.

"I think there's just as much money around as ever, but there are more places to spend it. For instance this winter there will be a half dozen rich professional golf tournaments in the state—against only two or three big ones in previous years.

IF THE AMERICAN baseball

League plays in the Coliseum this coming summer some of the southern newspapers are talking about setting up a sub-office at the Coliseum. Some of the sports writers will spend all their waking days and nights there. In addition to daily baseball, there'll be the pro football two leagues, college football (UCLA and USC), rodeos, fire works, etc.

It would take a rich man just to attend everything in just this one stadium.

Advance Sale Of Tickets for Classic Begun

Second annual Palm Springs Golf Classic, the world's richest tournament, were set in motion Friday night at a meeting of golf enthusiasts from the desert area at Tamarisk Country Club.

The Desert Empire was told that here was its chance to get behind the biggest event in golfdom and upon them rested the success or failure of the event, scheduled for Feb. 1 to 5, 1961.

DAN THORNTON, former governor of Colorado presented the principal talk of the evening, detailing the many facets of the Classic — five clubs cooperating, $100,000 in prizes, the $50,000 hole-in-one prize, the cream of the pro golf crop plus the best amateurs, publicity via coast to coast television, plus newspaper and radio accounts.

THORNTON SAID it was an opportunity for all residents to support a world-wide sporting event.

The gathering, presided over by Milt Hicks, tournament chairman, started the sale of advance tickets for the Classic in a pre-Christmas drive.

"Here is a chance to become members of five of the finest country clubs for the duration of the tournament. Your ticket entitles you to what would cost a large sum otherwise," Hicks said.

TOM BROWN and Gus Kettmann, co-chairmen of the Admissions committee were present and Brown spoke in behalf of the opportunity to acquire tickets early and help support the event.

Last night's meeting was the first of several planned to unite the entire desert community behind the great event, the largest in golfdom today.

Frick Doesn't See Delay for L.A.

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Ford Frick, Commissioner of Baseball, said today he doesn't anticipate any delay in the 1961 arrival of Los Angeles' newly awarded American League franchise.

"The major league official arrived Friday to study the "entire situation."

"I want to find out about the American League plans for its new Los Angeles club — the schedule, the people involved, the financing, plans for operation and so forth," he said.

Warren Giles, president of the National League, also arrived in Los Angeles and said he wanted to study the situation before making any comment.

Cartoon Recalls Old Grid Days for Kaw

Memories of the past were re-awakened Friday for the Edgar J. Kaw family of the Desert Braemar by a sports cartoon in a Los Angeles newspaper.

The cartoon, entitled "This Day in Sports" carried this comment: "Nov. 4, 1922, Eddie Kaw scored three touchdowns and passed to George Pfann for two more as Gloomy Gil Dobie's great Cornell team crushed Columbia, 56-0. Lou Gehrig played for Columbia."

Kaw, who was voted into the Football Hall of Fame among the first to win that honor and who also is in the Helms Hall of Fame, has a chest full of trophies he won as a Cornell griddier. He was All-American in 1921, 1922 and 1923 and was on Walter Camp's All-American picks for two years. He was recently honored at a Penn-Cornell Alumni meeting in Los Angeles.

"It really brought back memories," said Mrs. Kaw after a friend had asked her if she had seen her husband's name in the paper that morning.

The Kaws, who are residents of Oakland, have an apartment here where they have spent the last three winters.

Colts, Giants Facing Trouble in NFL Race

The Baltimore Colts and New York Giants, who have met in the National Football League's championship playoff for the past two seasons, face "must" games Sunday to stay in the running.

Baltimore, which has a 4-2 record and can scarcely afford another defeat, was a 9-point pick at home against the Western Division-leading Green Bay Packers. The Packers won their first meeting, 35-21, one month ago at Green Bay.

The Giants' prospects for remaining in contention in the Eastern Division are not so bright. They are 7-point underdogs against the powerful Browns at Cleveland. With a 3-1-1 record, a defeat in this game would just about ruin the Giants' hopes of a third straight division title.

The Philadelphia Eagles, who are tied with the Browns at 4-1 in the Eastern Division, also face

Patriots Win

BOSTON (UPI) — The Boston

Patriots grabbed a big lead and then hung on grimly to edge the

Oakland Raiders, 34-28, in an

American Football League thriller

Friday night at Boston.

Huskies Favored by Three Over Trojans

Washington was a three-point favorite to defeat fired-up Southern California today and virtually cinch a second consecutive trip to the Rose Bowl.

A crowd of about 50,000 was expected at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum to see if Southern California would "win one for Mike McKeever," and take over first place from the Huskies in the Big Five race.

McKEEVER, a rugged guard for the Trojans, was recovering from brain surgery after being injured during last Saturday's 21-4 triumph over Stanford.

UCLA, which still has a chance to nab the Big Five crown, faced California and was a 10-point favorite to overcome the Bears on the Berkeley gridiron. Terrific speed plus Bill Kilmer's accurate passes were expected to be too much for Cal to handle.

OTHER TOP GAMES found Stanford meeting Oregon at Portland, Oregon State at Washington State and San Jose State at College of the Pacific.

The Ducks seemed destined to hand Stanford its eighth loss in as many outings this year. It was a question of a swift Oregon backfield against a very slow Indian team. Oregon State sought to bounce back against Washington State from last week's 14-6 upset by California. San Jose State, a 29-6 upset victim itself at the hands of the Cougars, figured to have the edge over erratic College of the Pacific.

California Sport Dollar Thins Out

By HAL WOOD

United Press International

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The

battle for the entertainment dollar in California is getting serious and some sports officials are starting to wonder if the saturation point has been reached.

"Look at this crowd," wailed

Chuck Taylor, assistant athletic director at Stanford as he pointed to the estimated 29,000 fans in the stand for the Stanford - Southern California game last Saturday.

"Ten years ago we would have had 60,000 or 70,000 here—no matter what the team records. There is no doubt about it, the professionals are cutting a big inroad

on the entertainment dollar."

Singing Star To Be Jack Benny Guest

Occasion Calls For Visit to Barber, New Suit

Guest star Gisele MacKenzie displays her formful triple-threat talents as singer, musician and comedienne when she jousts with Jack Benny on "The Jack Benny Program" Sunday, Nov. 6 (9:30-10 p.m.), on the CBS Television Network.

Jack jousts for Gisele's visit with a trip to the barber shop, where his reputation brings uniformly unenthusiastic responses from the barbers (Rolf Suda, Richard Deacon, Ned Miller and Pitt Herbert), the manicurists (Iris Adrian, Audrey Clark and Shirley Mitchell) and the shoeshine boys (John Chevon, Bobby Johnson and Wesley Gale).

Benny even wears a new suit for his violin duet with Miss MacKenzie and wins new respect for domestic tailoring.

Benny and Miss MacKenzie play "Fascination" and "Cascades" on the violin and Miss MacKenzie sings "Smile" to her own piano accompaniment.

TV-Radio in The Sun

SULLIVAN VISITS CHICAGO SUNDAY

Charlton Heston, Benny Goodman, Mahalia Jackson, Bob Newhart, Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy, and Dolores Gray will be guests when "See America With Ed Sullivan" visits Chicago Sunday, Nov. 6 (8-9 p.m.) on the CBS Television Network.

The careers of most of these performers have been linked with the Windy City in one way or another. Messrs. Goodman, Newhart, Bergen and McCarthy (who was carved from a Chicago tree) and Miss Gray were born there; Heston studied dramatics in Chicago at Northwestern University and gospel singer Mahalia Jackson has lived in that city since she was 16.

ACTOR CHARLTON Heston began his career by appearing in Chicago on daytime radio shows and has since starred in many of Hollywood's top films, including "The Ten Commandments" and "Ben Hur," for which he won an Academy Award this year.

Comedian Bob Newhart, who made his television debut also on a local Chicago program, will

Mason Hired By Famous Circus Clown

Case of Bigamy, Blackmail Threat Cause of Action

Perry Mason is hired by a famed circus clown to untangle a case of bigamy and head off a threat of blackmail, in "The Case of the Circus Clown" on "Perry Mason" Saturday, Nov. 5 (CBS Television Network, 7:30-8:30 p.m.).

Clown Felix Heidemann summons Perry Mason when circus co-owner Judd Curtis, who is scheming to buy out partner Jerry Franklin, threatens to tell Franklin that his wife Lisa first was secretly married to Heidemann and was never divorced, unless Heidemann gives him the money to swing the deal.

Mason carries his investigation to the scene, and is present when Curtis is shot to death during the clown's burlesque of a sharp-shooting act.

Raymond Burr stars as Mason. Featured as regulars are Barbara Hale as Della Street, William Hopper as Paul Drake, and Ray Collins as Lieutenant Tragg.

Also in the cast are Douglas Henderson as Felix Heidemann, Chana Eden as Lisa Franklin, Robert Clarke as Jerry Franklin, Walter Sande as Judd Curtis, Ken Curtis as Tim Durant, Willard Sage as Tony Gilbert, Maggie Hayes as Joyce Gilbert, Lillian Bronson as the judge, Jon Lormer as the autopsy surgeon, Kenneth Tobey as Deputy District Attorney John Romeny and Russ Thompson as the ringmaster.

Sexy Blonde Has Assets

TOM DANSON HOLLYWOOD: Jol Lansing is known in and around Flickerville as "The sexy blonde."

But she doesn't object to the tag. "Why should I?" she told me the other day. "It's kept me working, and if a producer forgets my name, well, she grinned, 'he has something else to remember me by'."

This season Joe is hoping for the addition of another word to the title. She would like to be known as "the sexy, talented blonde."

TOM DANSON And, as a vehicle for proving her talent, Joe proudly pointed to her role in "Klondike," the NBC-TV web's new series based on the Alaskan gold rush, which premieres next week.

Jol has been working to develop herself as an actress, singer and dancer since childhood but, as she states, "When a girl is typed as a sexy blonde, she is neither expected nor given the opportunity to display dramatic talent—it's just that display along other lines."

(NOTE: She's got a couple of good points there!) Jol was born in Salt Lake City, which explains the good looks for a blonde, and came to Los Angeles with her mother when she was seven. By 1950 (some years later), her beauty won her the title of "Miss Hollywood."

lywood," and this in turn led to an interview with top brass at MGM, where she was immediately signed.

TVviewers will remember Jol as a frequent visitor on the Bob Cummings show, as he was more than impressed with the gal.

ANY QUESTIONS? Q: Is actress Pat Hitchcock any relation to Alfred Hitchcock?—Ben Brown, West Hollywood.

A: You may be sure that she is, and is proudly presented by father, Alfred.

Q: I recently saw Dorothy Lamour on the late show with Bob Hope and Bing Crosby. Does this trio plan to make any more movies together?—Gracie M. Van Nuy.

A: In a recent column we reported that the trio planned another "odd" picture, but did not have the shooting date. They will start the picture "The Road to Hong Kong" in March of next year.

Q: I'm real interested in finding out if Kathy Nolan on "The Real McCoys" is married. Can you answer this for me?—Bob McKeown, Martinez.

A: No!

Q: Will Burl Ives make any TV appearances this season?—Stan B. Glendale.

A: Burl will star in "The Ox" on the "Zane Grey Theater" later this fall.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY Marriage is often referred to as a contract. Here in Flickerville they regard it as 90-day option! Then sometimes, it ends into a 3-week renewal!

Callectric Tells Share Earnings For 3rd Quarter

Third quarter earnings of 36 cents a share on 3,800,000 shares of common stock outstanding Sept. 30, 1960, compared with 42 cents for the same period in 1959 were announced today by Carl C. Ernst, president, in California Electric Power Company's report to stockholders.

Sale of the company's Mexican subsidiary to the Mexican government, low water conditions in its hydroelectric operations, higher fuel costs for steam electric generation of power and increased property taxes all contributed to the decline in earnings.

UNITARIANS GET VISITING PASTOR

The Rev. Raymond G. Manker, pastor of the Universalist Unitarian Church in Riverside, will be guest speaker when Palm Springs Unitarian Fellowship meets at 8 p.m., Sunday, in the board room of Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce.

One year ago this month he helped organize the local Fellowship, so his talk on Sunday evening will be in the nature of an anniversary observance.

ON SUNDAY MORNING, the Unitarian Church School will make a field trip to Salton Sea to study geological formations in that area.

Instructors Mrs. Robert Schnabel and Mrs. David Hamilton will be in charge, and a number of parents will accompany the group. A picnic will be a highlight of the field trip.

TOGETHER WITH members of the Palm Springs Unitarian Fellowship, Rev. Manker will review activities of the past year and assist the group in its overall planning for the future. He will also discuss a number of points that are of interest to new members of the group, helping to explain Unitarianism.

ALMANAC

Today is Saturday, Nov. 5, the 301th day of the year with 56 more in 1960.

The moon is approaching its last quarter.

The morning star is Mars. The evening stars are Venus, Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1605, Guy Fawkes, hired by conspirators against English King James the First and Parliament, was seized as he was about to blow up the House of Lords.

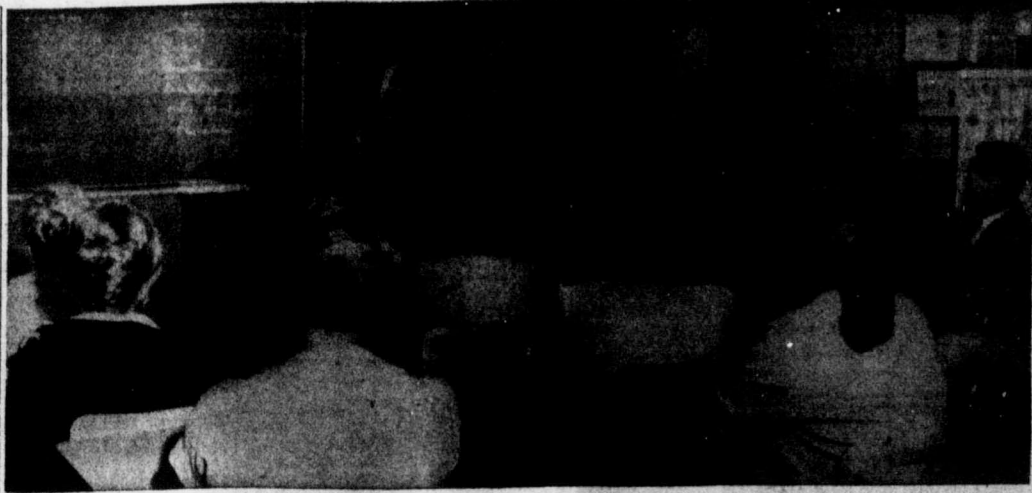

In 1733, a German immigrant to the United States, John Peter Zenger, began to publish a newspaper, opposed to the autocratic rule of the royal governor of New York, William Cosby.

In 1855, five-time socialist candidate for the presidency Eugene V. Debs was born in Terre Haute, Ind.

In 1911, Calbraith Rogers completed the first American transcontinental airplane flight from Sheepshead Bay, N.Y., to Pasadena, Calif.

Thought for today: American writer H. L. Mencken said: "Time is a great legalizer, even in the field of morals."

PARENTS IN CLASS DURING the Palm Springs High School "Back to School Night" Thursday, hear physics teacher Ralph L. Watt explain the scope of individual projects which students conduct for development of academic discipline and information. Watt, who worked with state and national award winning science students here last year, also gave some "sample" teaching to his parental "students," as did other High School teachers who greeted the parents in the 12 minute class sessions. The evening was complete with parents rushing from class to class in five-minute between period times—aided by Pinetore Girls who oriented the visitors on the unfamiliar campus.

NEW YORK (UP) — An electronic "pop gun" has been developed by scientists at the Bulova Watch Company here to check magnets to be used in an electronic timepiece the firm will introduce this fall.

The inspection unit "shoots" bad magnets into a waste basket and good ones into boxes that are taken directly to the production

Jobless Figures New Election Factor

WASHINGTON (UP) — Unemployment figures for October—described as gloomy by administration critics—shaped up today as a new issue in the election campaign.

AFL - CIO president George Meany accused the administration Thursday night of suppressing for political purposes what he termed "bad news" about October unemployment. He said joblessness may have reached a "serious danger point."

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL Chairman Henry M. Jackson leveled a similar charge earlier. He said the administration was going to withhold the October unemployment figures until after Tuesday's election.

The Labor Department confirmed that it would not issue the October figures until after the Nov. 8 election. A spokesman said this was the "normal course of operations." The last three monthly job reports were issued on Oct. 10, Sept. 9 and Aug. 10.

stood 6 per cent of the labor force was out of work in October—the highest this year.

The administration describes joblessness as "substantial" in any area with a 6 per cent unemployment rate. The last time the national unemployment rate hit 6 per cent was in October, 1959, when the effects of the steel strikes were being felt.

The Washington Star quoted Thursday an "unofficial but expert source" as estimating that the unemployment rate rose to 6.1 or 6.2 per cent in October from 5.7 per cent in September.

HARRY S. TRUMAN took us into the KOREAN WAR
